

Plan to Attend BOMA/Philadelphia's

Wednesday February 17, 2010 Luncheon Meeting

at

The Union League
Meade Room
140 South Broad Street
Philadelphia, PA

11:30 a.m. (reception) ~ Noon (lunch)

Cost: $65.00/member price ~ $80.00/ not a designated BOMA representative

Topic

National Issues Update Legislative Landscape & Building Codes How They Affect BOMA Philadelphia

Speaker

Henry H. Chamberlain, CAE, APR
President and Chief Operating Officer

Henry directs BOMA International's staff in support of the Association's 105 associations and affiliates with 17,000 members who own or manage more than 9 billion square feet of commercial properties in North America and abroad. Prior to joining BOMA, he was director of communications for the Gannett Company during the launch phase of the Nation's Newspaper – USA TODAY. He began his career in Washington working in the press office of a national presidential campaign.

A special thank you to the following company who have donated a prize for the February raffle drawing

Andrews and Company

Gift Certificate Flemings Restaurant

Costa & Rihl Mechanical Contractors

Flyers Tickets with parking pass

Day & Zimmerman Security Services

IPOD

LWC City, Inc.

Gift certificate Del Frisco Double Eagle Steak house

Event cancellation policy: All cancellations must be received in writing by 2-13-09. Phone cancellations will not be accepted. No shows will be responsible for the full amount of the registration fee. If space allows us to admit members to the luncheon that have not made a reservation those members will be charged an additional fee of $20.00. To avoid the fee we suggest that you make a reservation either by mailing the reservation card or reserve via email (kgahres@bomaphila).